INTRODUCTION

Dear partners, participants, we present you the info-pack for upcoming Summer school for young changemakers. The project will take place in Czech Republic. This Infopack should help you clarify what will be the event about. Please read the information carefully.

WHAT WILL BE THE SUMMER SCHOOL ABOUT?

Five days seminar will be aimed at empowering competences of youngsters to become the active citizens. Youngsters can gain or improve a lot of “key competences” (mainly teamwork, communication, digital competencies, critical thinking) likewise some of the leadership skills (such as motivation, positivity, creativity, responsibility). All of participants will experience with the intercultural learning, this seminar will help to break the prejudices and empower the idea of tolerance and solidarity. Youngsters will learn about the project management. After the summer school, the youngsters will organize small community projects in their hometowns.

Aims of the project:

- To create the place for discussion about the volunteering, active citizenships, community needs.
- To create the place where you can will share their opinion and make the friendships.
- To create the place where you can improve your language skills.
- To teach you how to create the campaign and how to be the active citizen in our society.

WHO IS INVOLVED IN THE PROJECT?

You and 23 young people coming from Poland, Slovakia, Czech Republic and Hungary. It sounds as a great adventure, right? For sure it will be and you will be part of it. Find the partner organizations in the text below and write them your interest to participate.
